NEW BUSINESS

Overview and Purpose of Decennial Committee on Local Government Efficiency Act 50 ILCS 70/1

Executive Administrative Assistant Peterson provided an overview of the purpose of the Decennial Committee on Local Government Efficiency. The Committee will meet three times and is required to provide a written report to the Cook County Board by December 6, 2024.

Review of the Efficiencies and Increased Accountability of the Northbrook Park District

President Chalem announced that the first meeting will be an organizational meeting followed by a review of past Annual Budgets and financial plans, and the Comprehensive Master Plan. The Committee will be addressing areas that the District could be more efficient and transparent. Commissioner Chambers added that the Committee should look at areas to reduce redundancy between agencies and create intergovernmental agreements to share facilities and programs. Commissioners and Resident Members Randel and Ziering engaged in discussion.
